CIA Is Being Made 'Goat' Dulles Says

NEW YORK, Oct. 10 (UPI) — Allen W. Dulles, former director of the Central Intelligence Agency, has charged that the nation's spy apparatus is being made the "goat" for American blundering in South Viet Nam, the New York Journal-American reports in a copyright story.

"Occasionally the CIA has to be the goat," Mr. Dulles said. "It looks like it has to be the goat again. Still it may be better for the CIA to be tarred in the Vietnamese mess than the President of the United States or the Secretary of State."
